SHORT BIOGRAPHY

Steve G. Miner is Team Pastor and Director at Elevate Life Church in Frisco, Texas, and the author of The Good Father: How Grace and Mercy Rewrote My Story. He lives by Core Values—Family, Faithfulness, Fun and Generosity. He and his wife, Glenda, have been married since 1987.

EXTENDED BIOGRAPHY

Steve G. Miner is Team Pastor and Director at Elevate Life Church in Frisco, Texas, where he has served for 18 years and was ordained in 2016. He is a pastor, author and mentor who lives by Core Values: Family, Faithfulness, Fun and Generosity.

At the church he serves on the ministry side, in Missions and Outreach, pastoral care and benevolence, and on the business side, in Human Resources, Accounting and Corporate Affairs. Before joining the church staff, he spent more than 14 years in the wireless industry, including leadership in corporate operations. He holds a BBA from Dallas Baptist University.

His first book, The Good Father: How Grace and Mercy Rewrote My Story, began with a question he has known since childhood: "Where was God?" It is a personal testimony of grace, mercy and a Good Father who never left—written for anyone wondering whether Jesus was in their story, especially people who have experienced abuse or trauma.

Steve and Glenda have been married since 1987. They have three grown children and grandchildren, and they make their home in the Dallas–Fort Worth area. Glenda owns her own business. They genuinely love people and want to see them set free. Steve welcomes podcast, interview and speaking invitations.

SUGGESTED HOST INTRODUCTION

"Please welcome Steve G. Miner, Team Pastor and Director at Elevate Life Church in Frisco, Texas, and author of The Good Father: How Grace and Mercy Rewrote My Story. He lives by Core Values—Family, Faithfulness, Fun and Generosity—and grew up asking, 'Where was God?' only to discover that God had been his Good Father all along. He and his wife, Glenda, have been married since 1987. He joins us for a conversation about that story, and about a life of faith lived through relationships and service."

Editorial copy may be adapted for the confirmed program or event. Confirm the final topic and introduction with Steve before recording.

Build the conversation

SUGGESTED CONVERSATION THEMES

01 Where was God?
Why His presence, hidden in the moment, is often unmistakable in hindsight—the question at the heart of The Good Father.

02 A Core Values life
How Family, Faithfulness, Fun and Generosity shape the way Steve lives, leads and shows up for people.

03 The cycle can end
Not because we are stronger than the generations before us, but because God's grace is stronger than the pain that was passed down.

04 Ministry and the business of the church
Serving Elevate Life Church in Missions and Outreach and in Human Resources, Accounting and Corporate Affairs—and what those years have taught him about people and leadership.

05 The story behind The Good Father
Why Steve wrote the book, what the title means to him, and the conversation he hopes it opens for anyone wondering whether Jesus was in their story.

QUESTIONS A HOST CAN USE

01 What led you to write The Good Father?

02 Who do you hope will find a place in this conversation?

03 What does the title The Good Father mean to you?

04 How has your understanding of God as Father shaped your faith?

05 Where do you recognize grace when looking back?

06 What has forgiveness meant in your story?

07 How do you think about forgiveness alongside responsible boundaries?

08 How do mentoring and marriage-group leadership inform your perspective?

09 How does local and international outreach shape the way you think about service?

10 What do you hope readers carry with them after the final page?

11 What does it mean to you to live a Core Values life?

12 How do Family, Faithfulness, Fun and Generosity show up in an ordinary week?

13 You serve the church in ministry and in its business operations. How do those roles speak to each other?

14 You and Glenda talk about wanting people to be set free. What does that look like in practice?

These are suggested prompts, not book quotations or a fixed presentation. Final scope and audience fit are agreed directly with Steve.

The book

FIRST BOOK

The Good Father

How Grace and Mercy
Rewrote My Story

By Steve G. Miner

"I was protected, even when I was not rescued."

Steve grew up asking the question many survivors of abuse carry in silence: Where was God? This is not a book about having it all figured out. It is an invitation to look again—for anyone wondering whether Jesus was in their story, especially people who have experienced abuse or trauma.

Other books in development

Reframed

Working title: How to Look Back, See God, and Decide What Your Past Will Mean.

What happened to you is part of your story, but it isn't the whole picture. Reframed invites you to look back over your life, see where God was present all along, and decide what your past will mean.

Be the Father

Working title: How You Are Called to Father Beyond Your Own Children.

God never meant fathering to stop at our own front door. Be the Father calls men to step into the lives of others who need a father, and to become the kind of man God sends.

The Little Miners

A 10-book children's series, in development. The Little Miners go looking for treasure and discover that the greatest treasures are things you can't put in your pocket. Each fun, warm adventure at Papa and Ella's house shows one Fruit of the Spirit at work in everyday life. Format and timing have not been announced.

Beyond the books, Glenda owns her own business. Together they try to live lives of service, because they genuinely love people and want to see them set free.
